COURSE NAME: Human Rights for Technocrats

COURSE INSTRUCTORS: Dr. Neena Jindal

MAX. TIME: 1 Hour

Note: All questions are compulsory. Marks are indicated against each question in square brackets.

1. Maya and several Black friends go to a local restaurant after school. They are laughing and carrying on like others in the restaurant. Things start to get out of hand between their group and several White students sitting at another table. Food is thrown and the groups exchange angry remarks. When the restaurant staff asks Maya and her friends to leave the restaurant, they feel angry and discriminated against.
Has the restaurant staff violated the group's human rights? Justify the case with suitable example. (CO1) Marks 4
2. Last week, Meerai and her friend Sean organized a school group to raise funds for AIDS research. Yesterday, on their desks, they both found crudely-drawn cartoons making fun of people who are gay and lesbian. Last night, several students shouting anti-gay comments verbally attacked them on the street opposite the school yard. Their teacher saw the cartoons and heard rumours of the verbal attack, but feels that nothing can be done because the attack took place off school premises. Neither student has complained to school officials.
Have the students violated Meerai's and Sean's human rights? As we are born free, explain in your own words that how the rights in the case are violated/discriminated?(CO1) Marks 3
3. Illustrate with suitable examples that how fundamental duties are related to Rights? (CO3) Marks 3
4. Critically examine that Human Rights are inter-related and inter – dependent.
(CO2) Marks 3
5. We are born without asking for it; what are we entitled to? Explain the given statement with suitable examples. (CO2) Marks 2
